

Fellowship of the Viol

A two-day workshop for players of the Viola da Gamba

Saturday & Sunday, October 7 & 8, 2006
Cincinnati, Ohio

Faculty:

- Annalisa Pappano (Catacoustic Consort, Baroque Northwest)
- Joanna Blendulf (Catacoustic Consort, reconstruction, WildCat Viols)
- Jim Lambert (Catacoustic Consort, Apollo's Cabinet, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra)

Additional instructors may be hired, based on the number of registered students.

Class format:

- Technique class
- Masterclass
- Consort (ensemble) class
- Group discussion during lunch
- Faculty concert Saturday evening

Registration: $80 per participant, $40 for students (includes light breakfast and lunch)

Register by Saturday, September 23, 2006 -- Register soon, as space is limited.

All levels are welcome, including beginner, intermediate, and advanced.

For more information: apappano@catacoustic.com, www.catacoustic.com, tel: 513.772.3242

Clip here and mail along with payment to Catacoustic Consort:

c/o Annalisa Pappano, 320 East Sharon Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45246

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Check one: I have music prepared to bring & will come with my ensemble. Choose music for me.

Circle the instrument you will bring and note your playing level* beside each that you have circled:

Pardessus _____ Treble _____ Tenor _____ Bass _____

*Use the Viola da Gamba Society of America taxonomy: A=advanced, UI=upper intermediate, MI=middle intermediate, LI=lower intermediate, B=beginner. If you are unsure of your level, ask your teacher or someone who has been to VdGSA workshops and knows your playing – see <http://vdgsa.org/pgs/self-rate.html>.